

Storm Delays Opening New Tennis Courts

HOPE TO BE READY FOR PLAYING
BY NEXT SATURDAY—IMPORT-ANT MEETING OF TENNIS
MEMBERS NEXT FRIDAY EVENING

The work of completing the new courts of the Narberth Tennis Association at Haverford and Montgomery avenues, was delayed by the storm, and it will not be possible to begin playing today. By next Saturday, May 14, however, it is hoped that the weather gods will have been considerate enough to permit Contractor Moses Lane and his men to finish the job.

The opening of the new courts will be an informal affair, which means that the members will christen the new project by playing tennis! Later in the season a more formal program will probably be arranged to mark the opening of the new courts, at which time several exhibition matches may be played by noted tennis stars.

Reserve Next Friday Evening

In the meanwhile, every member of the Association, is urged to make no other engagement for next Friday evening, May 13, and to plan to attend the business meeting to be held in the Community Room of the Y. M. C. A. building.

At this meeting the members will consider eight amendments to the constitution dealing with the matters that are of interest to every member.

In addition to the amendments to the constitution, several other matters are coming up for discussion and settlement, and it is highly important that every member attend.

Remember: Important business meeting, next Friday evening, May 13, 8 P. M., in Community Room of the Y. M. C. A.

Dog and Pony Show

NARBERTH BOY SCOUTS TO GIVE MINSTREL SHOW

Many Narberth folks will want to be at the dog and pony show at Wynnewood, Wednesday, May 11th, at which time our troop of Boy Scouts will give a Minstrel Show under the direction of Scout Master Patten. Many other troops of scouts will be there.

The show will be held on the Clothier estate near Wynnewood station.

This performance will give an opportunity to many who missed the Narberth performance to see this excellent show.

BIG RUMMAGE SALE

Among the most important features of the Wynnewood Bazaar and Pony Show, to be held on Wednesday, May 11th, will be the rummage sale. It will not be necessary to have admission tickets in order to buy from the rummage tables as they will be placed along the fence on Lancaster Pike and purchases can be made without entering the fair grounds.

A new feature this year will be Pony Rides for children, at 25 cents each.

Among those giving supper parties at the Bazaar are: Mrs. Edward Krumpholtz, Mrs. Alexander Cox, Yarnall, Mrs. W. W. Porter, Miss Catherine Mather, Mrs. Clarence H. Clark, Miss Margaret O. Remak, Miss Anne Townsend.

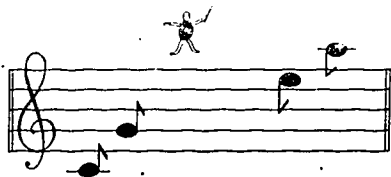

COMMUTERS GET EXTRA RIDE

Narberth commuters who came out on the 5.13 last Tuesday were given extra value for their money.

The motorman evidently forgot that Narberth was on the map and sailed through the station with full power on. Just as he saw Wynnewood station ahead of him, he remembered that nine-tenths of the passengers wanted to get off at Narberth. He then applied the brakes, and finally backed down the track to the station.

We thank the motorman for his generosity.

Narberth Choral Society

The program for the second concert to be given by the Narberth Choral Society about June 10, is progressing with much interest on the part of the chorus, and especially in the preparation of the male choruses which include a well known Orpheus Club selection, as well as attractive women's choruses. The program, as planned, will consist of about 3 mixed numbers, 2 standard short cantatas, 2 women's and 2 male choruses.

New singers have been added to the active membership at each rehearsal, and the parts are about closed for the second concert.

To express the high esteem the entire Choral Society holds for Prof. Nice, the following letter was written to him and signed by the officers of the organization:

"To Our Director:—

We are unable to express our appreciation for all that you have done to make our Choral such a success. We realize that you have been much more than a director. Without your confidence in us, your energetic, contagious enthusiasm, your sane counsel, and your experience, of which you have given so freely, it would have been impossible to achieve what is now history.

We have enjoyed your leadership. We feel that our musical appreciation and vision has been broadened under your guidance. We esteem you for your patience and for the charitable manner in which you have smoothed over our musical shortcomings.

That our relations continue in the indefinite future as harmonious as they have been in the past is the unanimous wish of the Board of Directors.

Sincerely yours,
(Officers, etc.)"

At a meeting of the Board of Directors, the office of Hon. Vice President was conferred upon Mr. William T. Taylor, who has shown a great interest in the success of the Choral Society.

Many Features to Devon Horse Show

ALL MAIN LINE ORGANIZATIONS
WILL CO-OPERATE IN BRYN
MAWR HOSPITAL BENEFIT

Plans are well under way for what promises to be the biggest Devon Horse Show ever held.

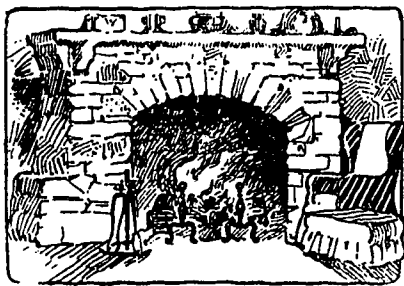

In addition to the Horse Show proper, the Country Fair, with its many departments and features, will be the largest and most interesting in its history. Committees in charge of the various features of the Country Fair are hard at work getting everything in readiness for the Horse Show and Fair, which will be held on Wednesday to Monday, May 25th, 26th, 27th, 28th, and 30th.

But the interest in this big Bryn Mawr Hospital benefit will not be restricted to Devon. Every organization on the Main Line will be asked to make individual efforts to help along this splendid cause, and there will be upwards of two hundred bodies in this section co-operating to make the Bryn Mawr Hospital Week an unqualified success.

Bryn Mawr Hospital is one of the finest institutions of its kind in the country. It is the only hospital in a large area, which includes the entire suburban Main Line, and patients are received from as far away as Norristown. The people of Narberth have always had a genuine interest in the Bryn Mawr Hospital, and will welcome this opportunity to help with the many features of the coming "mobilization."

One of the biggest features of the Horse Show and Country Fair will be the ball to be held Friday evening, at

Community Club's Cantata and Play Form Splendid Entertainment

"THE SHEPHERD LADY" AND "THE NEIGHBORS" DRAW WELL-MERITED APPLAUSE FROM LARGE AUDIENCE

The Narberth Woman's Community Club last Friday night rendered one of the most enjoyable entertainments which has been given in Narberth for a long while.

Before an audience of several hundred, which comfortably filled the High School auditorium, the Chorus of twenty-five voices gave the cantata "The Shepherd Lady," together with several other numbers, and eight members of the Club represented "The Neighbors," a one-act play by Zona Gale. Between the two parts of the program, the violin quartette rendered three selections, which were received with considerable applause.

An account of the cantata and play follows.

"The Neighbors"

Following the selections rendered by the violin quartette, a one act play was staged by the literature department of the Club.

The scene opened with Miss Abel engaged in ironing, talking to Grandma, who patiently sat piecing rags. The neighbors soon began visiting Miss Abel, each one interested in his own occupation. Ezra made much ado about his chores. Mrs. Moran was engrossed with her aches and pains. Miss Trot's thoughts would return to a buffalo bug which she found in her home. Poor Peter was bent on making love to Inez, and all but failed, while Inez did her utmost to help him to overcome his backwardness.

Finally all these occupations became of minor importance, when the neighbors discovered they could be of some real usefulness to Miss Ellsworth. Miss Ellsworth was to take a child to raise, although her means were limited. Grandma's rags turned into a doll. Ezra found time to carry a load of wood to Mrs. Moran's house. Miss Trot neglected the buffalo bug to make ice cream for a surprise party. Miss Abel set Inez to ironing while she collected clothing for the child. Miss Moran almost forgot to limp and Peter brought some toys which eventually led to his winning his lady love.

To Mrs. Norman Southworth, credit is due for the management of the play. The stage setting was worked out to the minutest detail, picturing a family sitting room of a remote small town. Those taking part were well deserving of the hearty applause received, and the congratulations for their good acting.

The actresses were: Mrs. C. A. Farmer, Mrs. W. E. Blodgett, Mrs. C. H. Shaw, Mrs. R. F. Wood, Mrs. S. F. Dunlop, Mrs. G. M. Davis, Mrs. J. S. Harris, and W. A. Mitchell.

"The Shepherd Lady"

Superlatives become monotonous, so we will content ourselves with the statement that no better musical production has ever been rendered in Narberth than "The Shepherd Lady," with the other numbers accompanying it.

From the "Elfin Dance" with which the program commenced, down to the last note of the cantata, those who were fortunate enough to have attended the concert heard a finished production.

It is difficult to single out any one feature of the program for particular mention. One was struck at once, however, by the remarkable unity of the twenty-five voices comprising the chorus. This was best brought out by the listener's ability to hear every word as if sung by a single voice.

Miss Florence Lewis, whose former appearance in Narberth has already insured a welcome, sang in a manner which brought forth enthusiastic applause. An unusually sweet and rich voice, added to perfect control, made her notes seem to be suspended in the air. Her first solo, "Villanelle," was so vigorously applauded that she returned and gave an encore.

In the simpler melodies, and in the unaccompanied pieces, the careful training of the Chorus was manifested. One number in particular, "The Dusk Witch" was so well given that a repetition was necessary to satisfy the continued applause. "The Dusk Witch" is a clever, appealing melody which one can hear over and over again, and enjoy it more each time, particularly when interpreted, as it was, in such a splendid manner.

"The Shepherd Lady," however, was the climax of the program. This cantata is a new work, which was presented in Philadelphia last month for the first time, by one of the large choruses. The writer was told by someone who heard both the performance given in the city, and that of the Community Club, that our local organization will compare, in point of finished interpretation, with other much older organizations. Let it be said, however, that this number, to disregard the rest of the program, was well worth going a long way to hear, and its excellent interpretation reflects a great deal of credit upon the Chorus.

Between parts of the song program, Miss Fanny Loos gave two piano solos, and an encore. Tchaikowsky's "Sleigh-ride," always a favorite, was played in a way which showed a splendid mastery over the difficult technique of the piece.

ENCOURAGING

Those who attended the play and cantata given by the Women's Community Club last Friday night expressed not only the real enjoyment given them by the program, but also their surprise at the finished production offered by the Chorus.

Narberth can well be proud of the progress being made in things musical. The success of the cantatas presented by the Choral Society and the Community Club Chorus gives promise of other fine programs by these organizations in the future. We certainly have a great deal to look forward to.

NARBERTH GETS ITS SHARE OF THE STORM

Narberth got a fair share of the "Nor' Easter" early this week, and considering the way the wind blew, it was really surprising that no serious damage was done.

However, branches were broken from many of the trees, and one fine maple in front of the residence of John Caldwell on Elmwood avenue, was blown down.

Home gardens were badly flooded and in many instances rows of young plants just showing their noses out of the earth were washed away.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CELEBRATION

The 97th anniversary of the organization of the Fairview Union Sunday School will be celebrated with appropriate exercises on Sunday, May 15th, at 3 o'clock, P. M.

A hearty invitation is extended to all Narberth residents to attend these exercises.

FLIES BECOMING WORRIED

Five more weeks will the ill-fated fly find it difficult to breed along the Main Line, because the General Fly Campaign Committee has made arrangements to retain the inspector until the fifteenth of June.

Special attention is being given to the breeding places because after all this is the source of all the trouble.

Mr. Maxwell, the inspector, who was originally engaged by the Committee for six weeks, will continue the inspection for the Committee until the middle of June.

Over two hundred fly breeding places have been inspected. Most of them have been cleaned up, and the balance have been given a limited time to do so by the Boards of Health. These include stables, refuse in back yards, cess-pools, leaky garbage cans, chicken houses, pig pens, and dumps.

It is the intention of most everybody to hound the flies to death and finally make it so unattractive to them that they will leave in disgust, because of the impossibility to lay their eggs in filth.

Clean up days saw the cleaning up of hundreds of fly breeding places, and the people are realizing, as never before, the necessity of preventing the fly from propagating its kind. Whenever one puts in its appearance, the many swatters are brought into use, or if they wander around the home of many of the school children, they are enticed into the traps, which are being made in large numbers.

Two flies killed now are worth twelve million, nine hundred sixty thousand on July 10th, so the scientists tell us. This shows how quickly they multiply. If they all lived a normal life, two flies in early June would be responsible for four and one-half sextillion flies by the end of September. Fortunately, they do not all live, but enough live on to endanger our lives with typhoid fever, tuberculosis, cholera, dysentery, paratyphoid fever, and infantile paralysis.

The police are keeping a close watch on the men who haul ashes and rubbish, and then dump it on open lots. Officers Reichner and Arthur arrested James Lyman, of Philadelphia, and James Natale, of Admore Park, during the past week for dumping on a property on Wynnewood Avenue, Merion.

The residents of the whole Main Line are urged to report such infringements of the law to the General Fly Campaign Committee, Merion Title Building, Ardmore; also any place that may breed flies. The inspector, with authority of the Boards of Health, will make every effort to have the menace corrected.

PLANS ARE COMPLETED FOR VALLEY FORGE TRIP

The Valley Forge outing of the Community Club will take place Tuesday, May 10th. In the event of a rainy day the trip will be postponed until Thursday, May 12th.

Many cars have been offered for the use of the club and there are still seats that may be reserved for those who wish to take this opportunity of combining a jolly jaunt with a visit to the beautiful chapel and interesting museum.

Even those who have made this pilgrimage will find there is so much more to be seen when we are looking together.

This is "Memorial Day" month. Come lay the flowers of thought and remembrance at the foot of these memorials to those heroes of our country who not only died, but lived valiantly.

Places may be reserved by phoning to Mrs. Batchelor or any member of the Executive Board. There will be a charge of fifty cents to cover cost of operating cars.

STRANGERS ALL

Once upon a time there was a movie director who wouldn't produce any script handed to him.

"Here," he said to his prize scenario writer. "This isn't consistent. Here in the last reel of this society drama you got a scene where all the guests are total strangers."

"That's easy," returned the cynical author. "Have them all appear as old married couples."

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.

THE ECONOMIC VALUE OF OUR SONG BIRDS

Now that the great spring migration is on, and every few days add a new note to the chorus in the tree-tops, we are all enjoying to the full, the beauty and music of the returning birds.

But how many of us give any serious consideration to the great value of the song-birds in our economic life?

During the war when the food situation was acute, I wrote to the Pennsylvania Secretary of Agriculture for information concerning the losses to growing crops through insect pests, and the figures sent me for the year 1916 were sufficiently startling. I quote from his letter:

Loss to the wheat crop...$3,660,293
Loss to other grains, including corn, rye, oats, buck wheat, hay15,298,235
Loss to potatoes 2,413,232
Loss to fruits 1,644,150
Loss to tobacco crop 683,400

Total$23,699,310

These figures do not include damage by insects to stored grains, cereals, flours, nor losses in animal husbandry, which would easily bring the grand total to the conservative estimate of forty millions.

This is the bill in one state for one year!

When this loss throughout the nation had reached the total of a billion dollars annually, the Bureau of Biological Survey began extensive studies of the food of birds by examination of stomach contents.

The results of these investigations, which are available in many interesting bulletins, established beyond question the fact that our native songbirds, as a check to insects, pests, are one of our greatest national assets. Therefore no effort should be spared to protect and conserve them.

In this series of short articles, it is proposed to discuss the various bird-groups, their feeding habits and economic value to man, in the hope that greater interest may be aroused in their protection. A Bird Lover.

DIPPY DIALOGUE, 19—

"How about going to the ball game?"
"I'd like to, but—"
"Let's play a little two-handed old maid, then?"
"Can't possibly; you see—"
"Oh, well, then let's get a glass of soda."
"Hang it, man, don't you know—"
"Oh, yes, I remember. This is Sunday."

THERE'LL BE OTHERS

"It may seem a curious request," said the young widow, "but on my husband's tombstone I should like to have inscribed Charles the First."
"Beg pardon, ma'am," returned the monument carver, "but was your husband of royal blood?"
"Oh, no, indeed. But I don't want my friends to think that just because poor Charlie died I shall never marry again."

Bus to Circus

The Narberth Bus will make special trips to the circus grounds, if sufficient number of persons desire it.

This will be a chance to avoid the long tiresome train and trolley ride.

We will make the trip if twenty or more wish it. Leave your name with the driver. Fare $1.00.

Community Club's Cantata and Play Forms Splendid Entertainment

A large share of the credit for the remarkable unity and "tone shadings" of the chorus must go to their leader, Mr. David Spratt. Mr. Spratt has substituted perfect attention on the part of the Chorus for excessive flourish by the leader. The eyes of each singer were constantly on the leader's baton, and in no part of the program was their perfect attention better shown than in these numbers given without accompaniment.

The members of the Community Club comprising this chorus are as follows:

First Sopranos

Mrs. T. Noel Butler, Mrs. Richard Gifford, Mrs. Joseph Nash, Mrs. W. Garfield Atherholt, Mrs. G. Merritt Davis, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Charles H. Shaw, Mrs. M. F. Alexander, Mrs. H. C. Fenno, Mrs. H. G. Reeves, Mrs. G. Johnson, and Mrs. Victor L. Sander-son.

Second Sopranos and Contraltos

Mrs. David Stiekney, Mrs. Louis Easby, Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, Mrs. J. S. Harris, Mrs. R. F. Wood, Mrs. W. W. Wimer, Mrs. Norton Williamson, Mrs. E. G. Schanroth, Mrs. H. E. Rueh, Mrs. Walker L. Owen, Mrs. F. A. Guinivan, Mrs. E. C. Batchelor, and Mrs. A. B. Ross.

THE MODERN WAY

"Will you marry me, dearest?" he asked.

"Oh, George," she remonstrated, "I'm afraid you only want me for my vote."

THE FIRESIDE

Commander Charles H. Shaw, of the "U. S. S. Nevada," spent the week-end with his family on Avon Road. He just returned from a four months cruise in Southern waters.

The monthly meeting of the Executive Committee of the Main Line Federation of Churches will meet in the Presbyterian Church of Narberth next Tuesday evening. Rev. John Van Ness is President of the Federation.

Rev. John Van Ness motored to Princeton last Tuesday with some friends and attended the Commencement Exercises of the Theological Seminary.

If you have not seen the "Garden of the Shah," the peppy musical comedy being staged by the Junior Community Club, tonight is your last chance. It is a great show—ask anyone who saw it last night.

Mrs. Charles H. Shaw recently entertained her brother, Mr. Robert S. Morgan, of Amherst, Mass. Mr. Morgan was attending the conference of Mutual Savings Bankers held at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, Philadelphia.

It is possible to have a wren come and build at your home if a suitable little box is provided. Boxes are quite inexpensive to buy, or one can be made. The holes for the little bird to enter must be just one inch in diameter.

A surprise party was given to Louise England, of Elmwood Avenue, last Saturday night. The guests were, Dorothy Moore, Dorothy Sheneman, Helen and Lois Caldwell, Elizabeth England, Betty Sander-son, Bob Saville, Dunwoody Zook, Joseph Fulton, William Heard, Atherton Lane, Carl Metzgar and Donald Brown.

A "Housecleaning Party" was held Thursday night of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wilson, of Wayne Avenue. The parlor was arranged in novel style; all the furniture having been removed, and boxes, ladders and planks substituted. The ice cream was served in little drinking cup "buckets," and the cake was iced all over and inscribed "Ivory." The guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Nickerson, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Siekles, and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wentz.

ATTEND ALUMNAE DINNER

of this noted New England College. The speakers recalled the long service done to the cause of higher education for women by Mount Holyoke, and its splendid contribution to the life of the nation through the women it has sent out to the homes, to the churches, to missions, to the professions and to the business world.

Of Mount Holyoke's 7,200 living alumnae, 1,500 are serving as teachers, 375 are doing social service or religious work, 320 are in secretarial positions, 200 are engaged in business, 175 are librarians and 100 are acting in administrative lines.

Thirteen alumnae have become presidents of colleges or schools. Five colleges have been founded by Mount Holyoke.

As the speakers of the evening pointed out, Mount Holyoke is feeling the financial stress. It is giving to students a college education at two-thirds cost, and cannot increase tuition charges without closing its doors to girls of moderate means, to whose service it has so long been dedicated.

Additional equipment and buildings are needed and the income must be augmented if the college's standards are to be maintained.

Mount Holyoke's alumnae have undertaken the task of raising the necessary funds, and under an individual quota of $305, have promised to complete the task within the present month. It was made perfectly evident at the dinner, that the Mount Holyoke women of this section are going to make that promise good before June 1.

Those present included Mrs. Frederick T. Van Auken and Mrs. Charles H. Shaw, of Narberth, who are graduates of Mt. Holyoke College.
